Attorneys, Bankers, &c.

BATHBUN & GRAVES,

A TTORNEYS AT LAW, LEXINGTON MO.
Will practice in all the courts of the Sixtirullicial Circuit, District and U. S. Courts Frompt attention given to collections. Office thain atreet, one door east of Zeiler Bros. up stairs.

A TTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT Law, Lexington, Mo. Office, No. of Main street, over the store of Eacherg & Jennings. Practice in all the courts of this and adjacent counties, and in the Supreme Court of the State, or Districted Court of the United States. Collections made.

TORNEYS AND COUNSELLERS AT Law, Lexington, Mo., will practice in all the courts in Lafayette county, and in the Court of Record in adjoining counties, and in the District Court of the State. Collections and other business intrusted to their care promptly attended to. Office, opposite Courthouse, over "Lexington Savings Bank," Main street. (apr3-1y

Jose A. S. TUTT. HENRY L. HAYNES.
TUTT & HAYNES.
A TTORNEYS AT LAW,
Office No. 87% Main street, over Tevis' Drug Store, will practice in the Lafavette and adjoining counties. Special attention given to collect, yous and the investigation of land titles.

RICHARD FIELD.

A TTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW, Lexington, M6. Office, corner Laurel and Main Streets, over R. E. Hayst store. n8v22m

MUTCHINS & TAYLOR,

Real Estate and Insurance Agents.

LEXINGTON, MO.

Collected, Taxes Paid, and other busine

REAL ESTATE AGENCY

BY THOMAS C. BLEDSOE.

WM. LIMRICK.

BANKER,

THE AULL SAVINGS BANK.

[Successor to Banking House of Robert Aull

GEO. WILSON, President.

JAMES AULL, Cashier.

Lexington, Missouri.

WM. MORRISON & CO.,

LEXINGTON, MISSOURI.

Exchange.
The highest market price paid for County and The highest market price paid for County and The highest market price paid for County and The Price p

City Warrants, and all descriptions of Bonds a goldated on favorable terms.

Will allow interest on time deposits

OF LEXINGTON, MISSOURI,

--:0:---

MOSES CHAPMAN, Cashier.

WM. B. EINCAID. JAMES WENTWORTH EXCHANGE

JOHN W. WADDELL, Pres't.

BANKERS

JOHN AULL, Vice-Presider

JO. A. WILSON, Ass't Cashi

in Aull's buildings, up stairs, No. . Lexington, Mo.

B. C. WALLACE.

AND. JOHN E. RYLAND BYLAND & SON,

ZACK. J. MITCHEL

BEMIS.

HENRY L. HAYNES DOMESTIC COTTONS

HOME

VOL. 2.-NO. 33.

BROWN

Manufacturers of All Kinds

SACKS

AND DEALERS IN

AGENTS

COTTON

LEXINGTON, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1872.

A SECRET.

In its cold and still repose!

Yet were, slas, so far!

I do not know 'f I wept, love,

I will give her a last love-token

In the dark grave-or beyond it!-

Of this deathless love of mine.

So long t sought me a little sc oli, love,

And thereon in eager haste, Lest another's eye should read them,

Some mystic words I traced, Then close in year clasped fingers, Close in your waxen han 1,

I placed the scroll as an amplet.

Sure you would understand!

Only we two may know

The secret is your's and mine, love!

Of your grave so green and low.

It is all I would have you say!

But if, when we meet hereafter, In the dawn a of fairer day,

What words shone clear in the darkness

You whisper those mystical words, lo

THE SQUIRE'S MISTAKE.

Squire Dudley was in his garder

oulling weeds in his patch of tam

quire Dudley saw her just as sh

"Pleasant morning, isn't it?" sai

he Squire, coming up to the fence

"It's beautiful weather," answere

tuth. "I told mother it was to leasant to stay in doors, and starte

"Are your strawberries ripe yet?

aid the Squire, wondering that h

ng face Widow Lee's daughter ha hetic Squire. "Have some of these luth. They're just ripe enough

He picked some great clusters

ipe berries and handed them ov-

"Thank you," said Ruth, smilin

How nice they are. Mother w naking great calculations on h trawberry jam. She was terribl exed when she found out what th

"I've got lots to spare," said th

quire. "I'll send some over to you

"She'd be much obliged to you aid Ruth; "if you have more tha

"Plenty of them," answered th squire; "plenty of them. Can hav

"I must be going," said Ruth

"Good morning," returned ti

quire, looking after her as she went town the road. "I declare there ain's aven't got her away from the wid

ow. If I was young now-"

hem just as well as not."

Good morning."

tuth had halted in the road.

That shall be to her a sign

But my soul rose up and said:
"My heart shall speak unto her heart,

[From The Aldine for November] It is your secret and mine, love,

ST. LOUIS

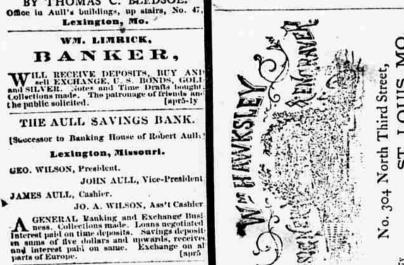

Pianos,

JAMES SWENEY Manufacturer and dealer in opper, Sheet Iron and Tin Worl

104 AND 106 N. MAIN STREET.

MILLS

ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis Tag Manufactory

Where you can get shipping tags printed—twinor wire string. Also Merchandlae Tags, famestyles, green or white color, silk, cotton or wirestring, as low in prices and as good in quality aony, house in the trade.—Address, Tag Manufacory, Post Office box 2826, St. Louis, Mo. BUY AND SELL FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC Exchange, Gold and Silver, and transact is reaseral banking business.

Particular attention given to collections, and proceeds promptly remitted at current rate of Exchange.

STATE LOTTERIES THE LEXINGTON SAVINGS BANK. Main Street, Opposite Court-House.

BANKING HOUSE WM. B. KINCAID & CO.,

EXCHANGE on St. Louis, and other cities proceeds promptly remitted at current rate of exchange. United States and other Stocks bough and sold on commission, and Real Estate paper negotiated on favorable terms.

Dr. W. P. BOULWARE, CONTINUES THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINI in Lexington, Mo., and its vicinity. His residence is on Third street, and office near the old Farmers' Hank. For the information of strangers, he would state that he has an experience in the practice of his profession of thirty-five years.

PHYSICIAN AND OBSTETRICIAN OF STATE OF

EYE INFIRMARY. DR. SAMUEL GALLAND has fitted up bis office on the corner of Franklin and Laure streets, Lexington, Mo., where he will treat all diseases of the eye of whatever nature. Patients coming from a distance can obtain suitable boarding places. Address Box 15, Lexington Missouri.

LEXINGTON CITY MILLS. EMANUEL EASTER, Proprietor Water Street, Lexington, Mo.

The BEST BRANDS OF FLOUR constanty on hand, also Bran and Feed.
All orders left at P. C. Patterson & Co's store, corner Main and Laurel, will be promptly atpended to.

145-1y Water Street, Lexington, Mo.

HAIR WORK

MISS ANNA DOWDEN, Is now prepared to manufacture all kinds of HAIR GOODS. HAIL JEWELRY made neatly and promptly Calgnons, Braids and Rolls made to order. Will supply to order every description of

HAIR GOODS. Call and see her at Mrs. Price & Arnold's Mil

DOLES AND HARNE In the Brick building one door north of O. S. Presbyterian Church, Pine St Annfacturer and Annfacturer and Annfacturer and Annfacturer and Annfacturer and Annfacturer and Annfacturer Combiner, Curry Combiner, Malvers oil, Malvers, Whipps, Spurs, Acc.

Thomas Gibbons. CHOICE STAPLE AND PANCE

GROCERIES WINES AND LIQUORS,

At Bostos, Prices, FOR CASH

H. MISCHON,

Boot and Shoe Maker,

Pine street, between Main and Market, LEXINGTON, Mo. septil-tf

FAVORITE

St. Touis Advertisements St. Tonis Advertisements

PLANING MILL

& CO. Sash, Door & Blind Factory

Mrs. A. S. Pommer

BROHAMMER. GENERAL

COMMISSION MERCHANTS. South Commercial Street

Exchange Building, Saint Louis, Missouri 37-Personal attention given to the Purchand Sale of Grain, Flour, Pork, Lard, Hemptope, Cotton, Tobacco, &c.

JOSEPH A. BUCKLAND GENERAL

Commission Merchan NOS. 109 & HI N. COMMERCIAL ST., St. Louis, M.

ompt attention given to orders for purchas ff on a visit." PARR & KALREY, Proprietors. Fourth Street, St. Louis, This House is in the business center, y ever had noticed what a fresh, charm

"Our straw berries?" laughed Ruth We haven't got one. Our old roos er got in one day, about a week ag and picked all he could eat, and the EORGE KENNEDY, Proprieto oaxed the hens in, and between hem they ruined our strawberr "Too bad!" exclaimed the sympa poke."

e good."

ie fence to her.

ens had done."

other."

on want-"

Lexington, Mo.

LYNCH HOUSE, Sedalia, Missouri.

excellent Rooms, good accommo tions, and reasonable charges.

NEW SALOON.

The Old Stand of John Bachr. . Louis Beer Always on Han

THE BEST WHISKY TO BE HAD IN THE CITY. I also keep constantly on hard the very be rand of wines and eigars. Give me a call.

in decisions, No. 3, in page 437, and in decisions of trained trained in said county at to-wit: Lots known and designated tof the first addition to the town of Le (now the bity of Lexington), in said State, as lots number three (3) a) in block number ten (10), which ce was made in trust to secure the paymertain promissory note in said deed deand whereas, said note has become due is unusuf, now, therefore, at the reach

Draw at 12 and Bo'clock

WILL pay a fair market price for all articles

JOHN F. ENEBERG,

DEALER IN

Doors, Sash, Blinds. GROCERIES,

HINA. GLASS, QUEENSW'RE &c. Lexington, Mo.

ds. Groceries. Shoes. Prod QUEENSWARE, NOTIONS, she gets her pay for her work, and Mrs. Dudley had died.

that's all she cares for. It's all we The Squire and widow kept up a an expect of her."

With a slow presistence all day long, I ripped on the window pane! The chamber was weird with shadows, And dark with the deepening gloom Where you in your royal womanhood They had robed you all in white, love, In your hair was a single rose; A marble rose it might well have been

O, paler than yonder carven saint, And calm as the angels are, You seemed so near me, my beloved, n't know but I'd better." orst part was over with. "You get married!" exclaime

f such a thing."

any objections? ey. "You can do as you think best.

lecidedly, "she will, I am sure." "May I ask who'tis to be?" inquir-wered the Squire, as red as a rose. I'd rather wait until I'm sure of her efore I tell you who it is. She might ay no, you see, and I should feel er tea started off across lots in the lirection of Widow Lee's, with the walked slowly. He had very bus oices in the other corner of the gar len, and stopped a moment to find out if it was the widow and he perspiration at the idea of having ss Sharp for a wife. "He says he didn't see as I ever in ended to get married," went harley. "I didn't tell him I had d to. I am sure he'd approve m aste in making a selection."

. "If I am going to be your wife want you to quit laughing at me n that sly way, pretending you ar lattering me all the time."

"Ilis wife! Good gracious!" ell him whom he had concluded to narry. "I declare," exclaimed Squire I've made a mistake this time, sure nough. The rascal has got the tart of me. I'd like to know what hing. Dear me!"

prettier girl in town than Ruth Lee. The Squire was in trouble. At wonder some of the young fellows Squire Dudley stopped suddenly. han Ruth would have been. Sh An idea had just flashed across his A fine woman. A smart woman "I'm fifty," he said at last, after She would make a fine mistress for his hinking quite busily for some minites. "I'm fifty, but I don't look it. don't see why I shouldn't try my luck after all. Girls as young as Ruth marry men older than I am. I'm sure she'd make any man a good wife. Her bound to go through with the matter since he had got so far. "I'll do mother is one of the finest women in the State, and she's brought her daughter up to know how to work, living. I do believe I'll marry her, you at first, you haven't been here if she'll have me. Maybe Charley'll in so long. Come in; take this rocksay it's foolish, but I cant help that," ing-chair, and let me take your hat."

The Squire fell to weeding out his trawberries again diligently, and the Squire a chair and deposited his trawberries again diligently, and the Squire a chair and deposited his sept thinking about Ruth all the hat on the table before he happened old to the great house whose mistress a few. Strawberry short-cake don't had been dead for ten years or more, go bad this time of year."

provided, of course, that Ruth didn't "I'm a thousand times obliged to say no, and the Squire thought there you," said the widow, taking the wasn't much danger of that; though basket. "I was so provoked to think me new feature in the landscape, she won't do anything with 'em, exor he kept his face turned away cept as we use them in the season of rom Charley's as he spoke.

"A housekeeper?" asked Charley. "I want to know!" exclaimed the We've got one. What do we want widew. "You ought to have them done up. They're so uice in the winto get a little uneasy; "but Mrs. care of them, I'll do them up on Brown isn't such a woman as we shares."

ere he sighed deeply.

dent and in keeping things up, she'd ing to wreck and ruin before. Mrs. do better than she does now. Now Brown had been there ever since very brisk conversation, and at the "Just so," said the Squire, glad to send of an hour he was more deeply now that Charley agreed with him in love with her than her daughter, o far. "Pre been thinking this and began to wonder how he had sorning that the best thing I could been so long blind as to overlook would be to get some one who such a delightful woman for so long. pitcher of last year's eider and a late of cake. "Do have something to eat and lrink," urged the widow. "If I'd have known you were coming I' nave made a cherry pic. I remembe ou used to like my cherry pies." "I-I wish you'd come and make red in the face again. "1-1 came dewn to ask you to marry me, Mrs After which innocent falsehood th Squire felt decidedly relieved.

my man," answered the widow olushing, and looking as pretty as "It's all settled, then," cried the lelighted Squire, and kissed he lump on the lips just as the doo

"I'm sure I'd as lief marry you pened and Charley and Ruth cam " Allow me to make you acqueint d with my new housekeeper," sai he Squire, bowing very low to hide is red face. "And allow me to present n rife-that is to be," answered Char ey. "You take the mother and I'l ake the daughter."

I am happy to say that, under th new administration," things are no longer going to wreck and ruin.

A Mother-in-Law's Fast Ride

From the Turt' Field and Farm. J. S. is the fortunate possessor f a mother-in-law, and, what h robably thought more of, among his orses was one known as Quaker. Now Quaker was a great roader, and vould jerk a wagon with two in it in :51 on the road, and the harder he vas pulled in, and the more he was elled at, the faster he meant to go. Mr. Atcheson's premises, a sheep and n fact, when a competing horse a two year-old steer. The sheep had didelity." anged alongside and a strong pull vas taken, accompanied with yells, heathe steer two or three weeks. Both hought he must do his level best on were alive and ate grass most ravenrotting, and he did it. Not many ously as soon as released from their cars ago, when the county fair was seld where Master Joe then lived, he rock bottom and contains nothing, so ad old Quaker hitched up to a far as known on which animal life hundred pounds three-quarter-scated could be sustained. It is the opinion wagon, and, as he was getting in, his of the owners of the stock that it nother-in-law wished to go with him. Lived during the whole time of im-The Squire burst into a profuse He informed her that he was going to the town clerk's office at the lower thing to eat. she was in a hurry to return she 6.697. would have to drive back alone, and hen cramped the wagon for her ad mittance; and with head drooping and slouching gait old Quaker walke dong, taking the ill-assorted pair t the town clerk's office. Now, be nown, Joe dearly loves fun, and wil nave it as often as possible, while nother-in-law is a rigid, old-fashoned sky-blue, undoubtedly very good, but unfortunately possesse with the idea that to laugh is to sin

t so happened that every team a grounds or else was walking; se

Quaker had no chance to "score-up," out just as they arrived at the office of the town clerk, S. saw Jack Barne oming on his way to the fair. Now. Jack's mare had the reputation of being four or five seconds faster than old Quaker. To turn Quaker around amp out, and advise mother-in-lay o drive slow in going home, was bu minute's work; and then holding up his hand to attract Jack's attention e told him he would pay chicken ixings and etceteras if he woul ange alongside Quaker at speed, vel and spurt the old horse up the stree o the fair ground entrance. A not and Jack touches Lady Cutler with is whip, sings out git! and lays for Quaker, who, hearing the stepper oming, grabs at his bit. Mother-inlaw takes hold of the reins in fron of the buttons, puts her feet agains brace iron in front, and as the lady ranges alonside, Jack yelling lively, nother-in-law takes her stronges pull, screaming whoa to stop he 'animile." But he didn't stop-not much-he did'nt. The pull was jus enough to steady him good; whos he vidently considered to be meant fo sell to the other horse, and squatter o go his level best, and he just did it. Barnes was actually getting left be aind, and warming up to his work he mmences in right good carnest to sing out, Hi Yarr! Go long! What ar ou about? Git, won't you? and they did git-nice-"Both on 'em.' The peoplethey passed seeing their speed and the old lady's hat on the back of her neck, her shawl stream ing out behind, and the courage with which she hung on to the lines, clapped their hands encouragingly, sung out Good, old Gal"-"Gay old Bird"-2:40!" "Bully for old Quaker! And as they passed the two hotel he boys on the piazzas gave the will reach the elbow shortly, as in the hree cheers with a vim-in fact with several extra vims. Joe's mother-iu-law took the evening train for her Green Mountain ome. His parting words were "1 hould not dare allow her to drive Quaker again, as she had gone and beat one of the fastest horses in

CLOSED HIS MOUTH .- At a part where questions were asked, an facctious if not felicitous answer were expected, a coal dealer asked "Yes, I know," assented the Squire, ter. I would like to get some for what legal authority was the favorite turning red in the face, and beginning iam; and if Mrs. Brown won't take with his trade. One answered "Coke," "Right," said the coal dealer. Anoth

WHOLE NO. 85

some woman to "wait" for their rights" is as ridiculous as was the prayer of a little woman in the Chi-ago fire : "O Father, give me pa-

ience to wait for a cup of tea unti

A Connecticut Macon offers two rizes for the best and next to-bes

ablic displays of temale straddle

ise equestrianism at the Middlese owed to enter there is not likely to

The managers of the Hartford

(Conn.) Women's Christian Associa

ion Home having refused to admit respectable colored girl to the insti tution, were reported to the board of directresses, but have been sustained the board resolving, by a vote of 1

o be much competition.

he tire is out!"

Kentucky Items. To the wife of Chas. Linsley, Covington, Ky., on the 22d inst., triplet sons.

Colonel Richard West, of Scott unty, has sold his celebrated horse West Wind, for $3,000. It is und tood that he goes to Ohio. The revolving breech-loading rifle dopted by the Prussian Government was invented by 'Col. John C. Miller of Danville, Ky. The Lebauon Standard says: Horse-stealing is becoming painfully requent in this vicinity lately. Sevral valuable animals have been taken the last ten days." In excavating the mud from a filled up pond on the place of John N. wens, near Lewisburg, and more than one mile from the North Fork, Licking, which is the nearest water course, two large turtles were found mbeded in the mud, alive and ready expediency." - Much feelings exist to fight anything which came in ench.

A deer swam across the Ohio river, rom the Ohio to the Kentucky shore on Friday afternoon, near the mouth the plains and in the valleys of Cali of the Little Miami river, and was ornia-tall, little of form, with ex ubsequently shot and killed by the en working at the pumping house of the Newport water works. A marrel arose among some of the of the Orient upon the checks, and parties about the killing of the ani-delicate hands and feet. One of then mal, which resulted in one them furnished Joaquin Miller with the ad breaking the other's arm by striking with a gun.

"The Carrollton Democrat says The tobacco crop of this county fa xceeds any ever before raised here rom the failure of this crop in many ther sections of the country, and om the yearly increasing demand or the article, we may expect that obacco will command a good price this season, though, probably, it will not sell quite so high as last year's crop, and that it will bring a large mount of money into this and adoining counties." From the Bowling Green Panta Monday recovered from a large sinkhole, thirty-five or forty feet deep on been in the hole about four weeks and prison. The sink-hole has a solid prisonment without a bite of any-

One firm in Greenville, Muhlenburg ounty, has ready for market seventy ive thousand pounds of dried apple and peaches. The Postmaster General has order ed the discontinuance of the following postoffices in Northeastern Kentucky Deer Creek, Carter county, and Oa springs, Johnson county. Bill Williams, colored, who he ais trial last week in the Taylor ircuit Court for the murder o Charley Chiles, was found guilty of hat time was going to the fair nurder in the first degree by the jury and was sentenced to be hung o Friday, December 20, next. A mo ion for a new trial is, however ending in his case. We learn from the Georgetown fimes that the new weed, thorny maranth (amaranthus spinosus), ha ppeared in that county and is one of ne introduced weeds which are gradually working their way west ward through the country. It should e destroyed wherever found, and it extension prevented as much as pos

Women Items.

Orleans again. The addresses of women formed new feature of camp meetings this

There are thirty-six first-class girls chools in New York city. Two sisters in Beloit have recently recived $28,000 a piece by bequest i the will of a departed relative.

A pious Oregon woman wants a d vorce from her husband because h shot, on Sunday, a bear that was kill ing his hogs. Ladies and gentlemen promenad ing together of afternoones this fal are commanded by fashion to wall rm in arm. The Rev. Prudy LeCterc of Lafay tte, Ind., is a promising young preach

r-pretty, popular and not half rudish as her nan.e would indicate Mrs. Crittenden, widow of Laur Fair's victim, is at present keeping boarding house in San Francisco i order to support her family, who ar in poor circumstances financially. A French fashion writer says: "A most every year fashion adds anothe days of our grandmothers." A stout woman was arrested Philadelphia the other day, and two sheets, five shirts, and a pair of pantaloons were found wrapped about er body beneath her clothes.

A Miss Morgan of New York city

niece of ex-Gov. and ex-United State Senator E. D. Morgan, is credited with the feat of having captured Gen. Phil. Sheridan. Wedding ere long. Carlotta, ex-empress of Mexico. will leave a fortune of $5,000,000 to inherited by her brothers, the ing of Belgium, and the count of landers. This she inherited from er father, Leobold I. of Belgium.

A Newburyport weman lately be came the happy mother of triplets one of which has black hair, one red, and the other white. She won't ha to tie pieces of ribbon on them t

Mrs. Stanton says the willingness years ago.

A unique St. Louisian writes his ame Dr. W. Pope C, Head Three husbands of an Arisona wenan have been murdered within ten enting with the Turkish bath in a se of hydrophobia. A colored preacher of Georgia (appropriate name) county fair. In-asmuch, to peeer, as none but "ladie of good more, character" are to be alwrites his name "rev. louis PoPe," and votes the Grant ticket.

caped payment of her hair-dye bill ecause she was a minor.

Detroit has a girl nine years old who can tell a lie a minute for a full our. She also steals and is obstinate. California, with more wheat than he knows what to do with, is preparing to raise more next year than to 7, to exclude colored women from the home "as a matter of Christia in Hartford and vicinity over the The Shasta Indian women are sai o be the most beautiful squaws upo An Illinois man, while drunk, fell pressive features, long black hair hanging two-thirds of the way to the rom a wagon and died. The man ground, flashing eyes, the purple flust the sold him the whisky compro-> nised by paying the dead man's heirs The personal paragraphist of the hicago Times has a foot that rivals magnitude an ordinary lake steam-. His father's bib tannery is on

> Jacob Weber, of Ohio, aged 93 cars, has voted 72 times during his

A Kansas zephyr lately blew away one now but a great granddaughter, girl of 19. A Western editor says of a neighrith a quivering cyclid, that he stutters in the left eye." Kausas babies are soothed with 136,000 a year. Under the republic io sighed for, he munches a crust in prison cell. Hon. Chas. T. Bond, an es ent mason, died at his residence, New Albany, on the 14th inst, "Once bit, twice shy," is a homely aying, but singularly .ruc. It means hat a man who has been swindled will be very cautious the second time and the third. The fourth time how-

In 1776 the first religious services ield in Kentucky were held at Harodsburg. The Baptists of Kentucky ropose a centenial celebration of the me at the roots (still remaining) of he same tree, and at the same spring. No person, says a writer in the

to sac," which is defined in the dicionaries as rogue, thief, etc. Fashionable authority decided that stovepipe hat is always becoming, mless it is too much stove. It is one of the beautiful compensaions of this life that no one can sinelping himself.

There was allers a woman at the ottom of it." An instance of throwing one's self about was witnessed a few evenings goat a party in the case of a young vain, doctor; you cannot get me to hange my religion." "I do not want that," replied the good man,

'I wish religion to change you."

of our young citizens, who went into the country last week to work on a farm for a few weeks, and seek turned the otner day a little out of sorts, but healthy. He had blistered

One of the bridesmaids and one of a put some of my stater's paint on the groomsmen, on this occasion, the puts it on every day." It was officiated in like capacities at the an apparation disclosures all bride's first wedding some eightests around. At ideat Charley thought years ago.

MURRAY, MILLER & CO.

ST. LOUIS MO.

Each Day.

TICKETS PROM $1 TO $10

Ah me! how the dreary rain, Lay waiting for the tomb!

LESLEY GARNETT & CO.

L. BROHAMMER & CO.,

trawberries, on the morning when h & FORWARDING ook a fancy for Ruth Lee's prett ace. She came down the road look ng fresh as a new-blown rose in he lain calico dress and straw hat. He rown hair, cut quite short, blew al bout her face in little rings, and he lue eyes and bright cheeks made h s pretty a picture as one often sees ame opposite the strawberry patch nd called out "Good morning!" is brisk, cheery way. "O, good morning!" she answered You almost scared me, Squire Dud ey. I didn't see you until you

PLANTERS HOUSE

BOURBON HOUSE

THIS is a First Class Hotel, furnished in go style, nice clean beds, comfortable room ad table furnished with at the market afford 'ravelers stopping in our city will find at it gase all the comforts of home. novi2-LONG'S HOTEL,

ORTH side Pacific Railrond, near Paci Railroad Depot. Transient board, $1 pt. jyl7y PATRICK LYNCH, Proprietor

aurel Street, Lexington, Missouri

WHEREAS, Lucy B Wallace and Thor B. Wallace, her hishand, by their c tain deed of trust, dated the 28th day of Ap A. D. 1871, and duly recorded in the Recorde office for Lafavette county, is the State of & souri, in deed book No. 3, on page 499, conve-to the undersigned trustee the following aturday, the 23 day of November.

expenses of this trust.

JOSEPH A. WILSON, Trustee.

Franklin St., East End of Market House. HENRY MACEY, Groceries and Provisions

BUTTER, EGGS, AND FOULTRY,
BACON, LARD,
DRY HIDES BACON, LARD.

DRY HIDES while. Long before dinner was reator think of his basket.

I sell no intoxicating liquors, but will keep on dy he had fully made up his mind to "Oh! Ruth told me your straw-ind a general assortment of groceries of all dy he had fully made up his mind to "Oh! Ruth told me your straw-inds, glass fruit jars, jelly glasses, etc., etc. propose marriage to Ruth and bring berry crop had proved a failure, so I bich I will dispose of at a fair market price. I had proved a new housekeeper and mistress, thought I'd run over and bring you to the selling at cost or lower than home a new housekeeper and mistress, thought I'd run over and bring you on the selling at cost or lower than home a new housekeeper and mistress. cli no intoxicating liquors, but will keep on la general assortment of groceries of all s, glass fruit jars, jelly glasses, etc., etc., th f will dispose of at a fair market price. It of pretend to be selling at cost or lower than one else, but solicit a call from my old als and the public generally, that they may be for themselves. Respectfully, HENRY MACEY, ptl8-tf.

PINE LUMBER.

"I understand that," answered "No; that's so."

The difficulties on the Rio Grande know them spart. Three cheers for Charley. "If she had a personal interest in the place, and in being prunet found out how things were go-adjustment.

Mrs. Stanton says the willingness.

would take a personal interest in By-and-by the widow bustled out, natters. I don't see as you intend and presently came back with a get married, and if you won't, The Squire breathed easier. The harley, in intense surprise. "Why didn't know that you ever thought by "And I haven't till this morning," cherry pies for me all your life," xclaimed the quire. "I got to blurted out the Squire, turning very hinking about it this morning, and he more I thought about it the more thought it a good plan. You haven't if you deem it advisable to get a wife, I have nothing to say further han the hope that you will get some ne who will make you happy." "She will," said the Squire very

d Charley. "I-I haven't asked her yet," an-ather cheap." Prudent Squire Dudley. That af ernoon he picked a panful of his nest strawberries, and directly aferries on his arm. It was dusk efore he got to the widow's, for he houghts for company. He was won lering what it were best to do. should be propose at once to Ruth ; or should he see her mother first, and alk with her? He concluded tha he last was the wisest plan. As he pened the gate noiselessly, he hear laughter. "I never had any idea of it before aid a voice, which he recognized a Charley's; "not the least in the world de said he hadn't thought anythin about it until to day. I couldn't ind out whom he had in view. tope it isn't old Miss Sharp. She' ike to get somebody."

ot me a wife picked out, but I want "What nonsensel" laughed a clear. leasant voice; Ruth's voice, the squire knew, the moment he heard

The Squire was so taken by su orise that he came dear dropping hi trawberries. So it was settled be ween them. And he had come near proposing to his son's intended wife. le felt cold all over at the thought of it. How lucky that he did no ake Charley into his confidence, and m to do? I've told him that I in ended to get married, and if I don't e'll likely as not mistrust some ther bright though occurred to him There was the widow. After all, he would be more suitable for hin as somewhere near his own age.

empty house. Why shouldn't he narry her, since he could not have her daughter? "I'll do it," exclaimed the Squire

He knocked. The door was open and be saving and prudent. I'm sure ed by the widow, round-cheeked, we need a good housekeeper. Mrs. rosy and smiling.

Brown, she's old and fussy and crook. "Why, Squire Dudley! Good evened, and this way of living isn't haif ing," she exclaimed. "I hardly knew why he should be so sure, I can't say. the hens should spoil mine. Such a "Don't you think we need a housekeeper?" he said to his son Charles "If you want any preserves, come that afternoon, as they sat on the over and get 'em," said the Squire. yerendah. The Squire evidently saw "We've plenty of 'em. Mrs. Brown—

Brown isn't such a woman as we shares."

I wish you would," said the too," said the questioner. Then a sin the work as—a woman would who Squire. "Things are all going to little hard-faced man in the corner who had more interest in it."

After which extremely logical ar—

Taint to be expected a hired woman the coal dealer sat down without gument the Squire got more fidgetty will take any interest in affairs;" and saying anything.

venture and the materials from which e wove the magnificent "Tale of the Tall Alcalde." WOMAN'S FIDELITY .- In the warof the petty princes of Germany natter and result.

his rival, shut himself up in Weit ourg. This was in 1140. After protracted siege that garrison capita ated on the condition that all the women should be allowed to depart taking with them as much of the property as they could earry. The erms of surrender baying bee signed, the gates were opened, and t the great surprise of the besiegers graph: "Mr. Jesse Sweeney and A. the Duchess appeared, bearing he Atcheson, of this county, .last husband on her shoulders, and follow a by all the women of the cit imilarly laden. The hill they crossed s still called Weibertreue-"woman'

Duke Guelf, being hard pressed I

Colman's Breeding Farm. The St. Louis Times of Novemb d, contains the following complime ary notice of the stock that is being ored at Col. Colman's farm ner t.Louis . It says:

"The breeding of ane horses

beginning to attract the attention

ome of our most enterpoising far ners. In Kentucky, large fortune have been made by those who have f farming. The same results can b ttained in Missouri, for our soil an limate are equally as well adapted he breeding of all kinds of stock, an o market affords such fine facilitie or the shipment of stock to all part the country as does St. Louis Among those who have turned their itention to the breeding of fine hors in Missouri, is the Hon. Norman . Colman, of the Rural World. Hi tock farm is located about thirt ules south of St. Louis, near Pevel n the Iron Mountain railroad. He e keeps scores of trotting colts, fillio nd brood mares, and holds his annud sales in imitation of the Kentucky breeders. On Wednesday, the 13tl ust., his third annual sale will seld at his farm, and those wantir promising colts, should make a not of the time and attend. "At the head of his breeding sto tands the fine bay stallion Abdalla ir., half brother to the queen of the urf, Goldsmith Maid. They were ooth sired by Alexander's Abdallah and he by Rysdyk's Hambletonia he sire of so many noted flyers. The lam of Abdallah, Jr., is Kitty Fisher. y Bertrand, a grandson of Mamrino, fuil sister to old imported Mrs. Gains is after the city of Nev lessenger, so that Abdallah, Jr. gets the rich trotting blood of Mesenger on the side of both sire and lam, and such a stallion cannot de therwise than get trotters. His colt dl have fine trotting action, and when they attain the proper age will be heard from. We could note number of promising young stepperired by this stallion, but will defer t till another time. "Col. Colman purchased, the pas eason, Mambrino Temple, who will hare the honors of the harem with Abdallah, Jr. He was sired by that ncomparable stallion Pilot Temple. nd his dam was by Mambrino Chief. he sire of Lady Thornc. Here is fixture of the blood of Pilot, Jr. flora Temple, Mambrino Chief and of Messenger-for his grand dam ran ack one side of both sire and dam to mported Messenger. A better bree tallion than this would be hard to ind anywhere, and although he ha ever had but a few mouths training. et, at the late St. Louis fair he beat ill the horses that contested for the three minute premium by several seconds, and also beat all the horse button to ladies' kid gloves. The hat contested for the 2:40 premiur out one, and tied that one, so that he premium was equall divided, it being too dark for another trial. "Col. Colman has some of the best brood mares that could be secured, which may be noticed at another ime. We hope that the example which he has set will be followed b others, so that when horse fancier vish to purchase a well-bred horse hey need not turn their backs upor Missouri and their faces toward Kentucky, but will be able to find as well-bred and as fine stock here as

The widow of the late Wm.T. League, of that city, was married to Mr. Ed-

JOB PRINTING:

CHEAP FOR CASE.

Small Talk.

The St. Louis doctors are experi-

A red-haired gitl of San Francisco

he raised this. A countryman and his wife attendng the "opery" in New York left in isgust when Lucha, in Fra Diavolo, began to disrobe before the mirror. The "Permanent Friends" is the ame of an Evansville society. The nembers are sworn to refrain from orrowing money from each other.

he brink of total suspension.

ong life. A good many men in the tepublican party have done better an Jacob in one 355th of one year. In the London Educational Department is a man named John Dent lent. The President should call him ver, as he has a double claim upon im, and is undoubtedly his long-lost rother-in-law .- [Boston Post.

Kansas heifer. All of Sir Walter Scott's race are attlesnake rattles. When an infant ries the mother hunts the prairie with a fence rail. Under the empire which he lamooned, Rochefort had an income of itizen of Mississippi, and an emi-ver, he will be swindled more easily nd completely than before.

erm "capet-bagger" is a literal trausation of the French phrase "Homme

'hiladelphia "Age," appears to have oticed the philologoical fact that the erely try to help another without An old lady who had heard that a oung friend had lost a place by mislemeanor, uncharitably observed, ady, who when asked to sing first ossed her head and then pitched her A clergyman having made several ttempts to reform a profligate, was t length repulsed with, "It is all in

"See therel" exclaimed a man who had just had a contest with a fleeing burgiar, to a gaping crowd, as he pointed with some pride and a good ical of nervousness to a bullet hole brough the crown of his hat. "Look it that hole, will you? You see that f this had been a low crowned hat, I vould been killed outright." A Cleveland Quaker says: "One health instead of dissipation, rehis hands hoeing corn, torn the scat out of pair of twenty-five dollar pants at a picuic, one eye was blackned from attempting to draw water rom an 'old oaken bucket' and a rank, his forehead was frescoed with nusquito bites, a stone-bruise gave im the Alexandra limp, he was reckeled like a leopard, and had been sunstruck four times. With seso exceptions he had experienced n elegant time, and is going next ummer to jail in preference to the country."

red ?" asked his sister's admirer, of